

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Tools We Need for a Successful Journey

Raymond Sozzi

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Love of Self

“Before we can ask others to love us, we must love ourselves. Before we can ask others to believe in us, we must believe in ourselves”

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Education

“We must master the classroom lessons, but that’s not enough. We must develop a lifelong love of learning and never let our minds be idle.

Be a voracious reader and learn from those who have succeeded”

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Hard Work

“Work hard and work smart. A work ethic that promotes passion and pride in all you do sets you apart from the crowd and can take you very, very far”

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Persistence

“It takes failure to succeed. Don’t be stopped by setbacks, because they are essential to success”

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Respect for Others

“Honor the efforts and accomplishments of everyone you meet, because everyone has accomplished something. Every individual you meet is worthy of respect”

www.everestla.org

THE EVEREST Leadership Academy

Mentors

“Savvy, experienced people can help you overcome many obstacles by reinforcing the right values, providing a sounding board on major decisions, and teaching you their hard-earned lessons. In particular, find a role model whose best aspects you want to emulate and incorporate in your own life”

www.everestla.org