President's Bush's Letter Advising Young People

President Bush 41

“I cannot single out the one greatest challenge in my life. I have had a lot of challenges and my advice to young people might be as follows:

- Don't get down when your life takes a bad turn. Out of adversity comes challenge and often success.
- Don't blame others for your setbacks. When things go well, always give credit to others.
- Don't talk all the time. Listen to your friends and mentors and learn from them
- Don't brag about yourself. Let others point out your virtues, your strong points

- Give someone else a hand. When a friend is hurting show that friend you care
- Nobody likes an overbearing big shot
- As you succeed, be kind to people. Thank those who help you along the way
- Don't be afraid to shed a tear when your heart is broken because a friend is hurting
